

Learn online about your role in clinical research

GCP Central provides easy access to knowledge of Good Clinical Practice rules and other applicable regulations for everyone. Our elearning is based on your daily practice, consists of various interactive questions and is easy accessible via desktop, tablet and mobile. The online EU/GCP training is applicable for researchers, research nurses and other research professionals such as CRA's, who are involved in the design and conduct of clinical research in the EU, and should have knowledge of Good Clinical Practice.

Overview

Contents: International Good Clinical Practice guideline (ICH-GCP R2), EU Clinical Trial Directive, EU GCP Directive and translation of regulations to the practice of clinical research

Duration : 8 hours

Components : Introduction module to guidelines and regulations, including basics of clinical research

- 1 year access to regulatory updates of the choseb modules
- 1 year access to the myGCP environment

Language: English

Certificate : Online EU/GCP certificate

Would you like to purchase multiple licenses for your company?
Please contact us.

Your online EU/GCP certificate in 3 simple steps

1 Create account

Go to www.mygcp.nl and create your personal account. Activate your myGCP account via the activation link that is sent to your email address. Your myGCP account is active and ready for use.

2 Choose module

Go to the webshop of myGCP and choose the online EU/GCP licence. Easily pay online using iDeal. After successful payment, the elearning modules are directly accessible via the training page in myGCP.

3 Follow training

Directly start completing the elearning modules, on your smartphone, tablet or desktop. When you completed all assignments in the modules, your online EU/GCP certificate is available at your profile page. You will maintain access to the modules and myGCP for 1 year. For easy lookup or to receive regulatory updates.